The Master of Business Administration Program (M.B.A.) is accredited by AACSB International – the Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business. Fewer than 5 percent of business programs worldwide and less than 30 percent in the United States meet the rigorous standards of quality set by AACSB International.

The M.B.A. program offered by the School of Business and Technology is designed to enhance a student's general management competence and to prepare the student for successful careers in administrative and policy-making positions. Program focus is on the needs of mature students who have the educational background, experience, and degree of intellectual curiosity essential for graduate-level study. The program is open to master's degree candidates and special students who meet the admission criteria. The M.B.A. degree is typically completed in one-and-a-half to four years. Students can choose to attend on a full-time or part-time basis. All of the M.B.A. courses are offered in the evenings, in an eight-week format. Class delivery is primarily in the classroom, but there is also an opportunity to take online courses.

Graduate Distinction

Students who earn a cumulative graduate grade point average of 3.83 or higher will be graduated with distinction from the M.B.A. program.

Beta Gamma Sigma is the honor society serving business programs accredited by AACSB International. Beta Gamma Sigma faculty members invite qualified business students for membership based on academic excellence.

Goals of the M.B.A. Program

The goals of the M.B.A. program are to provide a graduate education that develops students' knowledge of critical business issues and current management techniques; and prepares these students for advanced management positions and entrepreneurial ventures. The program presumes that a manager must know how to obtain and evaluate relevant information; approach tasks logically, systematically and in teams; analyze problems; arrive at reasonable generalizations; develop creative solutions; work in a diverse environment; and act to achieve concrete results. The program covers a variety of concepts and analytical tools. It includes examination of the impact of both domestic and global environments on a firm's operation.

Structure of the Program

The M.B.A. program is structured in three components: foundations, required core courses, and electives. The foundations include demonstrated knowledge in fundamentals (through examination or course work). Eight required courses make up the core of the M.B.A. program. The elective courses are offered on a rotating basis, and each student's program must include a minimum of 16 credits of electives.

Foundation Courses

All candidates must have or obtain knowledge of fundamentals in the following areas: accounting, economics, organizational management, computers, mathematics, operations management, finance, and marketing. The UW-Parkside program offers a graduate-level preparatory foundation course in each of these areas. To waive course work in meeting prerequisites, students must have completed and passed an undergraduate equivalent with a grade of C or better. Students waived out of a foundation course are not required to take a course in its place.

Up to 6 credits of electives can be taken as independent studies and internships, with no more than 4 credits in each (see M.B.A. 794 and 799 for more information).

M.B.A. Consortium

In an effort to offer the foundation courses more frequently, a M.B.A. consortium was developed. The participating universities are UW-Parkside, UW-Eau Claire, UW-Lacrosse, and UW-Oshkosh. Through this collaborative effort, all of the foundation courses (except Algebra) are offered every semester via the Internet.

Elective courses are also offered through the consortium. M.B.A. consortium classes taken for elective credit from non UW-Parkside instructors are considered transfer courses and therefore subject to the 12-credit rule (see the transfer policy). Eligible courses are identified in the UW-Parkside course schedule. These elective courses will automatically be transferred to UW-Parkside.
