CLASS

OPERA

THE MET LIVE AT THE MOVIES

This class follows our Opera Season Class opener "A LOOK AT OPERA". The four sessions will focus on the last 8 operas of the 09-10 season to be shown at the Renaissance Theater in Sturtevant or Tinseltown Theater in Kenosha. Opera descriptions are on the reverse side. You will enjoy this class even if you don't attend all of the movie theater performances.

INSTRUCTOR: GREGORY BERG

Greg is a member of the music faculty at Carthage College in Kenosha, where he teaches voice and directs the opera productions. He is also Minister of Music at Holy Communion Lutheran Church in Racine and is the classical music voice of WGTD FM 91.1. Greg is a frequent soloist with the Racine and Kenosha Symphony Orchestras. He graduated from Luther College-Decorah, Iowa, in 1982 with a double major in music and religion. He then earned his M.A. in Vocal Performance from the University of Nebraska at Lincoln in 1984. After earning this degree, he served in an apprenticeship with the Chicago Lyric Opera Center for American Artists, a group of 12 singers selected from a pool of almost 500 applicants nationwide. Greg's awards for singing include four first-place finishes in NATS competitions, plus a victory in the 1984 District Metropolitan Opera Auditions.
