❖SPOTLIGHT ON MEMBERS❖

❖ Meg Andrietsch's photo smiled out at us from an article in the Racine Journal Times July 14, 2008. She is one of four Racine County residents chosen to be a delegate at the Democratic Convention in Denver. "Andrietsch of Mount Pleasant isn't a newcomer to the political world, but her volunteer involvement was on-again, off-again until she retired from her work at a telephone company in 2000. She started working on state Rep. Cory Mason's campaign, and has been volunteering with him ever since. Andrietsch estimates that her political volunteering takes up to 30 hours a week." Meg plans to make the most of her time at the convention by going to caucuses and building relationships with other local delegates. Read about her experiences at the convention in the November APB.

❖ Kay Wikel was featured in the July 30, 2008 edition of the Kenosha News. An article on the Relay for Life quoted Kay Wikel, who was selected as an honorary caregiver for the 13th annual Relay for Life, "The event is all about celebrating, remembering who we lost, and fighting back."

❖ Millie Carlson was featured in the Local Life section of the Kenosha News August 5, 2008. "Former teacher, avid cyclist celebrates 81st birthday with daily bike rides. "The woman was born to ride – and cross-country ski, and whitewater raft – and just plain explore life for sheer enjoyment. Biking, though, clearly tops the list. She's ridden the Des Moines Register's Annual Great Bicycle Ride across Iowa, the Great Annual Bicycle Adventure along the Wisconsin River, Schramm's Annual Great Bicycle Ride across Wisconsin, women-only tours, ridden the Natchez Trail from Tennessee to Mississippi and the Outer Banks of North Carolina, and biked multi-country European tours twice. Five years ago, she rode from St. Louis to Lake Itasca, Minn., a 648-mile, two-week jaunt."

A fellow biker is quoted: "Millie has to have a lot of friends because nobody can keep up with her." "Millie Carlson's philosophy is simple: 'Live for today, no yesterdays, no tomorrows.'"

We're proud of you, Millie!

Editor's Note: It's beginning to feel like fall. I'm tempted to buy a new box of crayons as I walk the aisles of school supplies, just for that distinctive "beginning of fall" smell.
