

Critical Multiculturalism and Teaching

with

Guest Presenter: Christine Sleeter

Monday, October 12, 2009

12:00 – 12:50 p.m.

Overlook Lounge, WYLL 275

Critical multiculturalism synthesizes insights and principles from multicultural education, critical pedagogy, critical race theory, and postcolonialism.

After discussing these areas and how they connect, Christine Sleeter will discuss their application to a degree program she led in California, and to other disciplines such as math, as presented in a book she is co-editing.

Refreshments will be served.

Upcoming Events:

Critical Family History & Historical Memory

Public Lecture by Guest Speaker: Christine Sleeter;

Tuesday, Oct. 13, 10:30 – 12:00 p.m. Student Center Ballroom

Native American Views of Science

Presenter: Vera Kolb; Wednesday, Oct. 21, 12-12:50 p.m., F/S Lounge-Wyllie 247

