

First Wednesday Series

LINK: Learning Integrated for New Knowledge

Wednesday, February 1, 2012, 12:00-12:50 p.m.
Hickory Room, Student Center

Presenters:

Lori Allen, Christine Tutlewski, Jim Robinson

Please join the Planning Team for the Learning Integrated for New Knowledge (LINK) initiative as they discuss the results of the pilot year regarding:

- 1.) What's an academic learning community?
- 2.) How does the academic part of the LINK Program work at UW-Parkside?
- 3.) Through their LINK experiences, what has the Planning Team learned about students?
- 4.) Through their LINK experiences, what has the Planning Team learned about the instructors who participated?

Attendees will learn about opportunities for participating in the initiative through a discussion of the current LINK Call for Proposals.

This First Wednesday session is sponsored by the Teaching & Learning Center, the General Education Program and Learning Assistance.

UPCOMING EVENTS

New York Times in the College Panel Discussion - Wednesday, Feb. 8, 12:00 – 12:50 p.m.,
Hickory Room-Student Center

Visit www.uwp.edu/departments/teaching.center/events.cfm for the complete fall schedule.