

"Keep up the very good work you do."

UW System President Kevin Reilly

New UW System President Kevin Reilly delivered an upbeat message during his first official visit to UW-Parkside April 12.

"I'm not only optimistic, I'm enthusiastic about public higher education," he told an Academic Staff luncheon. Reilly said Wisconsin understands the education-equals-success formula.

Later, he praised UW-Parkside's global vision citing the agreement with the Universita della Calabria-Cosenza as an example. He also praised UW-Parkside for the successful nursing consortium with UW-Milwaukee and the university's national reputation for community involvement.

He then urged the campus to "Keep up the very good work you do."
