Request to Withhold Information

The Office of Alumni Relations frequently receives requests for the names, addresses and telephone numbers of its graduates. According to university legal counsel, such data are considered public information that the Alumni Office is obligated to release. Alumni may exercise their right not to have this information released by sending the Office of Alumni Relations a written, signed statement asking that their name, address and telephone number be withheld for purposes unrelated to official business. Send the signed statement with your name, Social Security number, address, telephone number, and e-mail address to: UW-Parkside, Office of Alumni Relations, 900 Wood Road, P.O. Box 2000, Kenosha, WI 53141-2000.
