

– 1970s –

Linda Roberts ('71) is a teacher at Armitage Academy in Kenosha. She recently won a Presidential Award for Excellence in Mathematics and Science Teaching. Eleven teachers from Wisconsin were nominated for the honor.

Greg Barrette ('73) is owner of Barrette Printing Services. Barrette was the featured speaker at the Milwaukee Journal 2002 Career Fair in January. His presentation "Learn How Networking and Referral Can Lead to the Perfect Job" helped job seekers maximize their networking opportunities and obtain referrals from contacts.

Todd Munson ('73, '89 MBA) has become Cindy J. Munson. Munson teaches economics at Western Wisconsin Technical College, LaCrosse, and was recently named chair of the Social Science Department.

Mark Sockness ('77) has been appointed to the newly created position of vice president of accounting operations for the operations center of Dana Commercial Credit.

– 1980s –

Dr. Jeffrey R. Thomas ('82) was selected Wisconsin Optometric Association member of the month for January.

Dennis J. Skrypchak ('83) is senior vice president and financial adviser at Morgan Stanley and has earned the designation of Certified Investment Management Analyst through the Investment Management Consultants Association. Skrypchak earned the designation at the Wharton School. The curriculum involved in-depth coverage of such topics as asset allocation, ethics, due diligence, risk measurement, performance measurement and investment objectives. Skrypchak is among only 1,800 persons in the United States and Canada who have attained this designation.

W. Thomas Carls ('84) has joined the Bank of Kenosha as executive vice president. Carls was with Bank One in Kenosha and Racine in commercial and business banking for 17 years.

Diana Olson ('84) will have art on display at DeBerge's custom framing shop. DeBerge's has been in business in Kenosha for 100 years and it is the first time the shop has conducted a show. Olson was featured in an article in the Kenosha News, Dec. 9.

Dan J. Viola ('84) has earned the designation of certified investment management analyst through the Investment Management Consultants Association. He is managing director of investments for U.S. Bancorp Piper Jaffray.

Troy M. Woodrow ('84) has been appointed to the board of directors of the Women's Export Program of the Business Women's Network. Woodrow is director of sales and marketing for Beverage Specialties Ltd., Chicago.

Faye Flancher ('85) was sworn in as a circuit court judge during a ceremony at the Racine County Courthouse March 1. Flancher, who earned her law degree in 1988, will hear cases in Family Court.

Mary Dowell ('86) has been named director of corporate office human resources and diversity at Johnson Controls, Inc.

– 1990s –

Amy Sprague Champeau ('92) announces the opening of her new private psychotherapy practice in affiliation with the Pastoral Counseling Service of the Greater Milwaukee area.

Sandy Spielmann ('94) has been promoted to senior vice president – commercial product manager at Johnson Bank.

Kathleen Packard ('95) is the administrative assistant at Racine County Economic Development Corporation and recently achieved the Certified Professional Secretary (CPS) rating from the International Association of Administrative Professionals.

Michelle Gabor ('96) joined Rainfair, Inc. as human resources manager.

Lori Redlin ('98) has been named operations officer of Johnson Bank, Kenosha.

Shawn Ryan ('98) is the new integrated day services manager at Careers Industries, Inc.

– 2000s –

Troy Hurtig ('01) of Kenosha has been named Web designer for G. Leblanc Corp.

The Next PERSPECTIVE

UW-Parkside student Jose Faz adds his name to a wall of signatures surrounding the World Trade Center site in New York. Faz and six other students visited Ground Zero while participating in Habitat for Humanity's Collegiate Challenge Spring Break. Look for more on the trip in the next issue of PERSPECTIVE.

Free Harborfest Tickets

UW-Parkside is a HarborFest sponsor and PERSPECTIVE has tickets to this area's top music festival, June 14-16 at Festival Park on the lakefront in Racine.

Do you want a pair of free tickets? Here's what you have to do:

Send PERSPECTIVE a letter, fax or e-mail and tell us why we should give these tickets to you. (The address, fax number and e-mail are on page 2.)

Be as creative, cool, or kooky as you want. PERSPECTIVE will select the best of the bunch and award each winning author two HarborFest tickets.

But don't delay, get that letter, fax or e-mail in TODAY! HarborFest tickets won't last long.

All entries become property of Perspective. Contest open to residents of Earth only.