Transfer Guide for Psychology Majors

1. Application Procedure

UW System application is required for admission to the university, along with official high school and all college transcripts. To apply, visit <https://apply.wisconsin.edu>. Students must have 15 credits overall and a passing grade in Introduction to Psychological Science (PSYC 101 or equivalent) in order to be eligible for entrance into the major.

2. Transfer Policies

Transfer degree seeking student must earn a minimum of 30 of their last 60 credits at UW-Parkside toward their degree to fulfill the residency requirement. Individual departments and programs may require that certain courses be taken at UW-Parkside. Students transferring from non-baccalaureate institutions to UW baccalaureate-granting institutions may generally transfer up to 72 credits earned at non-baccalaureate institutions toward the 120 credits required for degree completion. UW institutions may accept additional credits toward the degree where appropriate.

3. Requirements for the Psychology Major (39 credits)

The following common requirements are in addition to the university general education requirements.
