Fallen Angels

Wednesday, 4/27/16, see back for further details

Noel Coward's classic comedy was first performed in London's in 1925, and has delighted audiences ever since. The Milwaukee Chamber Theater's delightful diversion is chock-full of his razor-sharp wit, charming musical interludes, and all-around joie de vivre! Julia and Jane are the dearest of friends, and both are happily married – until they each learn an old flame will be paying a call. When they discover they're both still carrying a torch for the very same Maurice, the fur begins to fly!

We're going to laugh the afternoon away, courtesy of our very own ALL angel, Don Cress, who has generously donated 50 free tickets to us. So since we can splurge a bit, we'll enjoy an early dinner at Café Coquette following the play. Bus transportation info and restaurant menu descriptions are on the reverse side.
