THE ELECTORAL COLLEGE

Friday, May 3, 2019

Cinema, Student Center 10 AM to 12 Noon

Professor Ross Astoria will review the origin of the Electoral College and its implication to today’s political scene. During this class Professor Astoria will lead us through a simulation of a model convention and deliberate on alterations to the Electoral College.

Professor Astoria is Chair of the Department of Politics, Philosophy, and Law at the University of Wisconsin-Parkside. He holds a JD and PhD from the University of California, Berkley, and teaches courses in constitutional law, public law, and political theory. The professor organizes model constitutional conventions for undergraduates.
