The Queens of England

Two Thursdays: March 3 & March 10, 2016
10 AM to 12 Noon, Tallent Hall #182

Most people know something about British royal history, such as the bravery of Richard the Lionhearted, the many marriages of Henry VIII, or the madness of George III. It seems there are hundreds of stories surrounding the public and private lives of Britain's kings, but what about its queens?

Join us as we take a look at some of the most powerful women to rule the Britannic Isles. Starting in Roman Britain and progressing to the modern day, this mini-history course will examine the public and private lives of many of Britain's female rulers, including Boudicca, "Bloody" Mary Tudor and her sister Elizabeth, Victoria, and the current monarch, Elizabeth II.

Boudicca
