

The Two Koreas and the US: Crisis or Opportunity?

Two Wednesdays: April 10 & April 17, 2019
10 AM to 12 Noon in the Cinema (Student Center)

This is a time of great importance and challenge for U.S. relations with both Koreas.

The Korean War of 1950 to 1953 made the Cold War global, saved South Korea from communism, and confirmed our strong alliance with that nation. South Korea is now a global economic and political leader, while the North is both threatening and unstable. Join us to learn about this important topic.

North Korean Missile

Hyundai Automobile

Questions call: Martha Krimmer, 262-554-8122 or krimmer2@wi.rr.com

✂-----

Class: Two Koreas Member $10 Guest $20 Register by Friday, April 5, 2019

Name _____ Check # _____

Email _____ Phone _____

Emergency contact name and phone _____ / _____

Deliver cash registration fee to Vanessa at the ALL office in Tallent Hall. Checks should be payable to UW Parkside/ALL; deliver or mail to Vanessa. Credit card registrations must be submitted online!

There is a $5 cancellation fee.

Our presenter for this class, Arthur I. Cyr is the director of the A.W. Clausen Center for World Business at Carthage College, a first-class learning facility that prepares students for business leadership in our global economy. Prior to coming to Carthage, he served as president of the Chicago World Trade Center Association, the vice president of the Chicago Council on Foreign Relations, a faculty member and administrator at the University of California-Los Angeles, and an executive at the Ford Foundation in the International and Education Divisions.

He is the author of four books on international relations and British politics: After the Cold War — American Foreign Policy, Europe and Asia (Macmillan/Palgrave and New York University Press, 1997; revised edition 2000, translated into Korean by Oruem Publishing); Liberal Politics in Britain (John Calder Ltd. and Transaction Press, 1977; revised edition 1988); U.S. Foreign Policy and European Security (Macmillan and St. Martin's, 1987); and British Foreign Policy and the Atlantic Area: The Techniques of Accommodation (Macmillan, 1979). He also authored the monograph Taiwan: The Commercial State (Baltimore: University of Maryland School of Law, 2003; revised edition 2005).

His articles have appeared in professional journals and the popular press, including Albion, Armed Forces and Society, The Atlantic Community Quarterly, Catholic Journal, Comparative Politics, Defence Systems, International Affairs, The Journal of Military History, The Midwest Quarterly, New Outlook, Orbis, Parliamentary Affairs, Parameters U.S. Army War College, Perceptions, Policy Sciences, Political Science Quarterly, The Presbyterian Outlook, The Ripon Forum, RUSI Journal, Society, Vanderbilt Journal of Transnational Law, War in History, World Affairs and others. He has also written for the Abilene Reporter-News, Chicago Sun-Times, Chicago Tribune, Daily Herald, The Deseret News (Utah), Financial Times, Gary Post-Tribune, Janesville Gazette, Kenosha News, The Korea Times, Lake County News-Sun (Illinois), Los Angeles Times, The Memphis Commercial Appeal, Milwaukee Business Journal, Milwaukee Journal-Sentinel, Northwest Indiana Times, The Providence Journal, The Racine Journal Times, The Seattle Times, Stars and Stripes, USA Today, The Wall Street Journal, and others. He writes a weekly column for GateHouse Media Inc.

Professor Cyr is a board member of the Japan America Society of Chicago, Real Racine, and the Racine YMCA Youth Leadership Program. He is a Senior Fellow of the Foreign Policy Research Institute, member of the Century Association and the Council on Foreign Relations, the Inter-University Seminar on Armed Forces and Society, the International Institute for Strategic Studies, the Royal Institute of International Affairs, and the Royal United Services Institute (RUSI). Dr. Cyr served in the U.S. Army reserves and on active duty as an officer in military intelligence.

He is a 1966 graduate of UCLA and received a Ph.D. with distinction in political science from Harvard University in 1971. At Harvard, he was a Frank Knox fellow in England, an NDEA Title IV fellow, and a teaching fellow.