Great Expectations

Wednesday, April 26th, 2017

Join ALL for Milwaukee Chamber Theatre's presentation of Dickens' Great Expectations.

Don Cress, our very generous ALL member, has given us 70 tickets to this play! Since we do not have to pay for the theater tickets, we are splurging a bit on dinner at the lovely French restaurant, Coquette Café.

Our coach leaves Tallent Hall at 11 AM (be there by 10:45). Pre-performance lecture at 12; play at 1 PM. Early dinner at the Coquette Café at 4:00 PM. Home about 6:00 PM.

In this literary gem, Pip, an orphan boy, has a life-altering encounter one day on the moors when he helps an escaped convict named Magwitch. From this singular act of kindness, Pip starts on a mysterious and disturbing journey to manhood that is full of twists and turns, miraculously allowing him to advance in society while all of his great expectations seem to be coming true. Packed with curious and fascinating characters, shadow and light, Gale Childs Daly's exceptional and bold reinvention of the classic Charles Dickens' novel is uncommonly tight and suspenseful – a fast-paced theatric treat!
