Happy winter everyone!

I hope you have been enjoying how mild it was early this winter.

Nominations for the positions of President-Elect, Secretary and three Members-at-Large are sought for our June election. A committee headed by Patti Gross meets soon to begin the process. Please consider if asked. Board meetings are monthly for 10 months.

As always our various committees are looking for new members. All that we do is done by our own members who volunteer their time. Attend a committee meeting to find out how it works. Check out the contact information elsewhere in this newsletter.

FROM THE ALL OFFICE:

Hello ALL members,

I wanted to make everyone aware of a few changes that will be going on in the Tallent Hall building where the ALL office is located.

The Continuing Education department (which is currently located in the same office as the ALL group) will be moving upstairs in the same building – however, the ALL office will be staying in the same location, Tallent L115.

Previously you were able to go to the front of the office and ask for me at the desk, going forward please use the side door that leads to my office for easier access to the ALL office. We will be sending updates as we receive them.

Needed!
Wanted!
Loved!!

To join the ALL fun...

Below is an excerpt from a letter received by Mac MacCaughey from former ALL member Sue Goelz. Sue was on the lecture committee and involved in many of our ALL groups. Sue and her husband moved to Madison a few years ago. Many of you may remember Sue. She has given permission to share this with ALL. Please note some information about Ginny Burlingame, a founder of ALL, at the end of the letter.

Hello Mac and Marilyn,

It is SO great to hear from you!!! Love all the news – your holiday letter was very informative...

I am so happy to hear ALL is functioning as always! I can't imagine that Lecture Committee without you (the boss) but I am sure Larry and Meredith Club will carry on well!) I don't know Meredith, but sounds like a great addition!

We are happy to be in Madison, love the liberal climate and it is great to be near family. We spend time with my sister, two girls and their children for all kinds of occasions. My son and his family live in Leesburg VA so we don't see them as much. They were here in August for two weeks, so we got our VA family fix then! We have two college age granddaughters - one is a junior at KU in Lawrence KS with long term plans of law school (and I might add maintaining a 4.0), another granddaughter is a freshman in Marquette's dental school, feeling she ended her first semester "very strong". Our third grand daughter will be going to Kent State next fall. She just got some very nice scholarships and plans to major in special education. (We can't help remember what Kent State was known for "back in the day" but now, the museum on the campus is all that she would know about it.)

We have joined PLATO – the Madison version of ALL.

It is managed very differently with various groups, classes and lectures held all over Madison at Senior Centers, churches, long term care facilities, libraries, etc.... just about any place there is meeting space. They have a number of trips, theater, arts – we went with them to Chicago for the John Singer Sargeant exhibit at the Art Institute and to a play in Milwaukee. They also have monthly breakfasts on campus. Sure doesn't have that warm ALL feeling, but of course smart and very nice people. They rely on members to offer many of the classes (there are so many emeritus professors), so quite a smart pool of folks to pick from.

We did some traveling in 2018 - a week with snowbird friends in Naples FL in January and then in Feb a 2 wk driving tour in NM and AZ - with a few stops, once again with snowbird friends in Phoenix and then on to the Grand Canyon. Beautiful scenery! Mike spent his childhood in Albuquerque so he enjoyed finding his high school, family home, etc. We traveled to Toronto with my oldest daughter and family as they toured colleges there. In July we enjoyed a two week trip with Road Scholar on the Baltic Sea stopping at all the seaside capitals – loved Copenhagen! So much more history that comes to life when seeing it!!!

We have no future travel plans right now as we have been struggling with some health issues. I have had a recurrence of spine/back problem, however I really feel I am on the mend. Found an awesome PT and am working with the UW Spine Clinic. Its been slow and will continue to be until I am back to my normal activity – I am a bit impatient but I am hell-bent to follow every bit of my PT's direction!!! Just a month ago I could't walk with out being bent over in half!!! Today is so much better - walking fine but need periods of rest. Mike has been diagnosed with Mild Cognitive Impairment due to Alzheimers. This is most distressing as you might imagine. He has joined a nation wide study being offered through the UW Wisconsin Alzheimer Research Center. There is so much ahead, lots of doctors, groups, support groups. He has had scans and lab work which have revealed a very old stroke but his symptoms are most typical of early dementia. He is mostly quite positive, as am I. SOOO happy to be near family. So, you see - no travel plans in 2019. One day at a time, as they say...

I belong to a health club and until recently I was in a water exercise program and meeting with a personal trainer. I should be back there in the next few weeks according to my PT - good news!

Oh, another coincidence – I visited with Ginny Burlingame who is now in assisted living on Madison's east side. I really didn't know her well but she is a member of OBUUC and I decided to meet her when I heard her daughter had suddenly passed away leaving her with no family/friends in the Madison area. She was so delightful, so brilliant... albeit such a distressing time for her. I hope to get back over there in the near future. I know some OBUUC friends have traveled to visit with her and she really likes her apartment and people she has met there. I found out later that she would have known you so well because she was part of the beginnings of ALL...like you!

Well, Mac...and Marilyn, this is all for today. I really enjoyed your letter! And, I miss both of you. Please say Hello to any one you might think would be interested in my greetings:)

Sue

LECTURE COMMITTEE

Meredith Clubb
docswife28@hotmail.com
Larry Gregg lgregg@wi.rr.com

NOTE: If the shuttle is not running, park in the Student Center main lot.

SPRING 2019 LECTURE SCHEDULE SWINGS INTO ACTION!

By the time you read this, we will already be past our first (Jan. 14) lecture for 2019. You should have received the schedule in the December mailing. If you didn't, contact Vanessa Greco at the ALL office.

The Lecture Committee will meet in late February to begin planning for the second semester (July - November).

If you have any ideas for a lecture speaker, please send them to one of the chairs, or to any Lecture Committee member you may know.

We cannot guarantee that your suggestion will be used; we use a "sifting and winnowing" process to try to establish a schedule which will present a variety of topics and issues of broad interest to our membership. Each "semester" customarily has ten lectures. Sometimes a "good" suggestion might be for a topic quite similar to one recently presented, or one already scheduled. But we promise that all suggestions will receive serious consideration.

At last report, our Committee includes Moreau MacCaughey, JoAnn Shea, Mike Thompson, Al Locke, Linda Flashinski, Hershel Johnson, John Stutt, and co-chairs Meredith Clubb and Larry Gregg.

The Committee meets about six times a year.

Its purpose is to brainstorm and plan the Lectures, set up the schedule, contact potential speakers, and introduce speakers at the meetings.

If you might be interested in serving on the Committee, please contact one of the chairs:

Meredith's email is docswife28@gmail.com
Larry's is lgregg@wi.rr.com

What you should know for Day Trips:

It is important to GET YOUR REGISTRATION IN RIGHT AWAY – on line if possible.

If you have registered and are unable to attend an event, call Vanessa at the ALL office at 262-595-2793. If we know about it before the deadline, we will refund your money, less $5. If you are unable to attend after the deadline and we have a waitlist, we will try to sell your spot to those on the waitlist. Call the trip leader on the flyer for trip info. Call Vanessa for the waitlist. A fee of $5 will be charged for registration changes. Remember: Gratuity is built into meal costs, but the bus driver tip is separate. A $2 tip is customary, more if you feel the driver deserves it.

Trips We've Enjoyed:

HISTORY COMMITTEE

Dave Westman
davewestman41@gmail.com
262-554-9132

One definition of History is “the recording of past and significant events”.

ALL’s History archives attempts to do this – and is only as successful as the content entering the files. So, it’s your chance to contribute and be included in our ALL archives.

Remember, HISTORY is like a picture. It lasts forever (or almost). Be a part of it.

WANTED.....Pictures and stories of the past.

Also from ON-GOING events such as trips, classes, and just plain fun. That’s how archives are remembered.

We always have our HISTORY DOOR OPEN!

PUBLICITY COMMITTEE

Dave Westman
davewestman41@gmail.com
262-554-9132

Media communication continues very favorably with the MANY Kenosha and Racine outlets. This includes newspaper and radio lecture coverage; as well as several additional full and part time publication coverage outlets.

However, one unfortunate change did occur. December 2018, was the last issuance date for the Kenosha News “MY LIFE” magazine insert (and also the individual mailings). Kenosha County Aging and Disability Resource Center (ADRC) performed an excellent coverage for ALL during the past 4 years. ADRC will continue their communication (including ALL when applicable) via other channels such as Facebook, Happenings, Smart Reader, etc.

Remember, word of mouth is still the most effective method, and “That’s up to Each of You”. Once again, we welcome your thoughts and ideas. We want the best organization possible.

EMAIL ME. And always remember, you can bring a friend (even a stranger).

SOCIAL COMMITTEE

Joyce Gyurina: 657-5990, joygy31@wi.rr.com

The 2018 Holiday Gala was held on December 3rd at the UW Parkside Ballroom. Over 125 members and guests attended the gala and enjoyed the delicious lunch and were treated to the very talented “Voices of Parkside” directed by Dr. James Kinchen. They were truly inspiring and had us join them in singing some familiar songs to lead us into the holiday spirit. Thanks to my planning committee: Patti Gross, Frank Santarelli and Marilee Unrath, along with Darlene Santarelli and Vera Schalk assisting with registration and decorating. Everyone seemed pleased with the luncheon and entertainment.

Greeters welcome members and guests for the lectures and special events with a big smile and friendly “hello”.

January Greeters: Nat Cycenas, Joyce Gyurina, Caroline Seeger and Norma Rukavina. February Greeters: Nancy Westman, Pam Drummond, Sharon Uttley and Carol Zelt.

March greeters: Barb Scholwin, Karen Kaleck, Doris Colombo and Gayle Caldwell.

Dawn Feldman-Braun also helped with the registration at the September picnic and as a greeter.

I am very proud of my greeters and grateful for their volunteer time. They willingly arrive 30 minutes early in good and bad weather, bringing their inviting smiles and warm welcomes!!

A BIG shout out “Thank You” to each and every one!!!

MEMBERSHIP SERVICES

Marion Sperer: 634-0336,

FOCUS GROUPS

CURRENT AFFAIRS DISCUSSIONS

Sy J. Adler: seymourjadler@gmail.com
262-877-3628, cell: 708-785-4067

Ted Anderson: 262-639-7863
trawisc@gmail.com

Ruth Frear: rfrear@att.net

Current Affairs is a focal point for discussions of local, national, and international events of the day.

Current Affairs meets at noon every 3rd Monday, in Tallent Hall's Orchard Room. Every meeting is different, as we wrestle with topics in the news that pique our interest. There is no shortage of topics for discussion. Issues addressed in the past few months included the two-state solution, its death, and why it matters; the elections and their aftermath; voter demographics; Foxconn; and migration.

Books and articles that participants found interesting included Michael Lewis's book, The Fifth Risk, Robert Kuttner's piece in the Boston Globe entitled, Can Democracy Survive Global Capitalism?, The Rich White Civil War by David Brooks in The New York Times, and Michael Lewis's book, The Fifth Risk.

We ended the last meeting of the year with a party, where animated, friendly discussions continued.

We are a diverse and curious group, with widely varied backgrounds and views; what brings us together is a keen interest in what is going on in the world. We don't often find solutions but we do have fun trying. The coming months will provide plenty of issues to keep the conversations going. Join us!

GREAT DECISIONS

Therese Constant, Coordinator
T2constant@aol.com, (262) 657-0877

Those who are participating in the 2019 GREAT DECISIONS Focus Group, discussions on U.S. foreign policy, have received their current briefing books in January. If you have not received your book, I will have it with me at the discussion session.

Because of the current state of affairs, it seems appropriate that topic #8, "STATE OF DIPLOMACY" should be discussed first. Participants should read that chapter before the session on February 6th.

The following chapter discussions will take place on these dates:

"GLOBAL MIGRATION" on Feb. 20th;

"MIDDLE EAST" on March 6th;

"NUCLEAR NEGOTIATIONS" on March 20th;

"NATIONALISM IN EUROPE" on April 3rd;

"TRADE WITH CHINA" on April 17th;

"CYBER CONFLICT" on May 1st; and last topic,

"U.S. and MEXICO" on May 15th.

If there is a snow day when Parkside is closed, that topic will be moved forward to the next meeting date.

Our group meets at Tallent Hall on the Wednesday dates noted above at 1pm - 3pm in room # 182.

If you have any questions, please contact me at T2constant@aol.com or call (262)657-0877
Tallent Hall, Rm #182.

POETRY

Ron Story:
ron.story@att.net,
(262) 577-5864

A small but devoted group of poetry aficionados meet on the second Monday of every month at ten a.m. in the Prairie Room of Tallent Hall.

In our most recent meeting we had lively discussions about a fast break in a basketball game, methods of torture that are used around the world, a father's abrupt abandonment of his family, and an Italian Renaissance painting.

Each of these discussions among others was prompted by a poem in our anthology, "The Vintage Book of Contemporary American Poetry."

Contact Ron Story (ron.story@att.net) if reading and discussing poetry interests you.

NEW Cancellation Policy:

The ALL board recently approved a new policy for trip/class/event cancellations where a refund is being requested by a member.

Effective immediately a $5 cancellation fee will be charged for all refunds. For instance, a two session class costing $10 will result in a $5 refund. A one session class costing $5 will not be eligible for a refund.

Similarly, trip refunds will have $5 deducted from the amount to be refunded. If ALL cancels a class or trip a full refund will be made.

SOCIAL BRIDGE

Patti Gross: 658-8849, patriciagross368@yahoo.com

Social Bridge is a friendly group who try to improve their skills and practice strategies. We play on Thursdays in the Tallent Hall break room from 1:30-3:30 pm.

DUPLICATE BRIDGE

New Focus Group: EUCHRE

Jim Young
young4406@att.net 262-324-8028
