Two Casablanca’s in one night!!
Saturday, April 18, 2015

The bus will leave Tallent Hall at 4 PM. Be there at 3:45, please.

First, dinner at the Casablanca restaurant (menu on back), followed by the classic film, Casablanca, with the Milwaukee Symphony Orchestra live at the Riverside.

This 1942 American romantic film classic tells the dramatic story of a man torn between love and virtue. Iconic performances by Humphrey Bogart, Ingrid Bergman, and Paul Henreid in a full feature evening, with Max Steiner’s Oscar-nominated score played live by the MSO.

“Here’s looking at you, kid.”

Incidentally, the upright piano from Rick’s Café sold for $3.4 Million at auction last November. Ingrid stood close to the piano when she said, “Play it again, Sam. Play ‘As Time Goes By.’” Join us to see Ingrid, Bogie, and the piano! (Note: the piano heard in the movie was actually off camera.)

Dinner at the Casablanca will be buffet style, served upstairs in their private dining room. There is an elevator. This is a very good Middle Eastern restaurant that we are sure you will like. Ethnic dining at its best!

Appetizers:

- Hummus: Chick peas pureed with tahini, lemon juice, olive oil, fresh garlic and paprika. Served with pickled turnips and fresh pita bread.
- Baba Ghannoj: Baked eggplant, blended with tahini, olive oil, lemon, and garlic, served with pickles and pita.
- Falafel: A mixture of ground chick peas and vegetables, deep-fried with spices, and served with pickled turnips and tahini sauce.
- Jerusalem Salad: A combination of fresh cucumbers, ripe tomatoes, shredded lettuce, onions, parsley, and mint leaves, tossed with a touch of olive oil.

Entrees:

- Beef Shish Kabob: Tender cubes of marinated sirloin, seasoned, then skewered with tomatoes, onions, and green peppers, and cooked on a charcoal grill.
- Chicken Shawarma: Chicken seasoned and slowly cooked on a rotisserie, then thinly sliced and topped with tomatoes, onions and sumac seasonings.
- Lamb Kifta Kabob: Lamb ground with parsley, onions and garlic, then charcoal grilled with tomatoes, green peppers and onions.

Accompaniments: Mixed vegetables, basmati rice, pita bread. Dessert: Baklava. Beverages: Coffee and Tea. (Sodas cost of $2, unlimited refills. Cocktails or wine can also be purchased.)
