

THE LINCOLN NOBODY KNOWS

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 15, 2017

UWP Student Cinema 10 AM to 12 Noon

Lincoln was a man who wanted to be remembered, but did not wish to be known; he was considered by his closest friends and associates to be one of the most closed-mouthed men they had ever known. Rarely, if ever, did he speak of his lineage, parentage, family and early life, faith, or romantic relationships. He was mystery to most people, only occasionally giving his listeners insights about his personal life and beliefs. This class identifies a few areas of his life that continue to baffle historians and encourage speculation.

Our instructor for this class, Steven Rogstad, is a graduate of the University of Wisconsin-Parkside and has studied the life of Abraham Lincoln since he was a young boy. He has taught seminars and courses on Lincoln at UW-Parkside, at Carroll University as part of the institution's Civil War Enrichment Program, and at the Civil War Museum in Kenosha. He established the Lincoln Monument Restoration Project, which restored (and in 1999 rededicated) the Lincoln Statue in Racine. He is the author of numerous reviews and articles related to his own Lincoln Research. In April 2008 Mr. Rogstad was appointed by Governor James Doyle to the Wisconsin Lincoln Bicentennial Commission, on which Rogstad serves as Secretary.
