One Man, Two Guvnors CLASS

2/27/18, 10a-12pm

CART 109 (RITA)

UW-Parkside Theatre Arts Department is presenting One Man, Two Guvnors and ALL has scheduled a class on this play with Jennifer Sassaman, the Director. She will discuss the Commedia Dell'Arte origins and how that has influenced this production. She is also going to walk everyone through both the design and rehearsal process that they've gone through for this show. We might even a walk thru of the actual set.

The ALL group is seeing the play on March 11, 2018, you have until February 23 to register to attend.

Jennifer Sassaman is a faculty member of the UWP Theatre Arts Department and Director of One Man, Two Guvnors. She has directed and choreographed over forty productions; performed in over twenty; recorded vocal tracks for various albums, written several plays and musicals; and taught hundreds of teenagers and college students how to be stronger performers. She received her MFA in Directing from the Florida State University School of Theatre. Jennifer started her own theater company in Philadelphia, where she served as the artistic director for five seasons. Under her leadership, the New Mermaid Players developed new works, performed locally and toured the Northeast. NMP also provided a theatre school and summer intensives for youths and connected local artists with struggling school programs. Jennifer previously taught at Troy University (AL) and has acted and directed at theaters and schools such as Walnut St. Playhouse (PA), British American Drama Academy (UK), Bradford College (MA), Waterfront Playhouse (FL) and the Asolo New Playwrights Festival (FL).
