THE MET LIVE AT THE MOVIES

This will be our 10th season of Met operas at the movies. Ten operas will be shown Live in HD at local theaters this season, and Greg Berg will again lead us through these productions in 5 classes. You can then attend each performance on your own at the Renaissance Theater in Sturtevant or Tinseltown Theater in Kenosha. Opera class titles and dates are on the reverse side. You will enjoy this class even if you don’t attend all of the movie theater performances.

INSTRUCTOR:  GREGORY BERG

Professor Berg is a member of the music faculty at Carthage College in Kenosha, where he teaches voice and directs the opera productions. He is also Minister of Music at Holy Communion Lutheran Church in Racine and is the classical music voice of WGTD FM 91.1. Greg is a frequent soloist with the Racine and Kenosha Symphony Orchestras. He graduated from Luther College-Decorah, Iowa, in 1982 with a double major in music and religion. He then earned his M.A. in Vocal Performance from the University of Nebraska at Lincoln in 1984. After earning this degree, he served in an apprenticeship with the Chicago Lyric Opera Center for American Artists, a group of 12 singers selected from a pool of almost 500 applicants nationwide. Greg’s awards for singing include four first-place finishes in NATS competitions, plus a victory in the 1984 District Metropolitan Opera Auditions.
