SUMMER 2015 Student Financial Aid Application Cover Sheet

Funds are available for the summer term, but are limited.
Please read through the eligibility information below and continue to the application on the next page.
Retain the information below for your records.

Eligibility:

- You must be enrolled in summer courses, and be admitted in a degree-seeking program prior to submitting the Summer Financial Aid Application.

- Your 2014-2015 FAFSA application and any additional documentation required MUST be submitted by June 25, 2015 to be considered for summer aid.

- You must have at least “half time” enrollment to be eligible for most state and federal aid programs. “Half Time” for financial aid purposes is:

  - Undergraduates: minimum of 6 credits or
  - Graduates: minimum of 4 credits

- Students who are repeating courses in the summer may have limited financial aid eligibility for those courses.

- Summer financial aid awards are limited to summer cost of attendance.

- Federal Direct Loans and Federal Pell grants are awarded for summer based upon remaining eligibility. Students who used the maximum of their Federal Pell and Federal Direct Loan eligibility during the fall and spring semesters may have no additional eligibility for the summer term.

- Federal Work-Study is available for summer, but can only be used during times that the student is actually attending courses.

- Any adjustments in enrollment may result in an adjustment of financial aid eligibility. Please contact the Office of Scholarships and Financial Aid prior to making any changes to your summer schedule.

Completed forms can be dropped off during regular office hours, or placed in our drop box.
