

#102
EDUCATION

Tens of thousands of people get financial literacy lessons from Educators Credit
Union each year.

Educators Credit Union wants to congratulate you on graduating! Learning doesn't stop after school. You're still going to have a lot to experience in life, especially when it comes to money. To help you learn those lessons quicker and easier, we have free online resources on our website.

- Get help with your budget on Banzai! Direct! The online program has a wealth of tools for adults. That includes the Budgeting Coach. If you need help creating a spending plan, the budgeting coach can help you plan how to use your expenses in a step-by-step program.
- Learn about mortgages, retirement funds, building credit and more on EVERFI@Work. EVERFI@Work offers 21 courses on finances to help you learn more about your money.
- Calculators to start planning for more! Our financial calculators can help you create savings plans, see the long-term cost of a loan, or create a strategy to pay off debt.
- The latest details on scam and fraud attempts to help keep you safe. Scams become very common during difficult times. Our website has information on current scams and how to take the proper steps to protect yourself.

Find all of these tools and more on the Financial Literacy page of www.ecu.com!

