

Questions to add to the “Course” Tab

Regarding the mid-semester transition from a face-to-face to an online course: I already had the technology I needed (e.g. stable internet access, computer) to complete my coursework online.

Regarding the mid-semester transition from a face-to-face to an online course: For this course, the transition to online learning went relatively smoothly for me.

Regarding the mid-semester transition from a face-to-face to an online course: The amount of work expected of me in this course was appropriate given the circumstances.

Regarding the mid-semester transition from a face-to-face to an online course: Personal issues (e.g. job loss, illness, caring for relatives) caused by COVID-19 had little impact on my coursework.

Regarding the mid-semester transition from a face-to-face to an online course: I appreciate the option to choose credit/no credit as an alternative to receiving a letter grade.

Regarding the mid-semester transition from a face-to-face to an online course: UW-Parkside provided me with essential information for my transition to online learning.

Questions to add to the “NARR” Tab

If you experienced issues caused by COVID-19, what were they and how did it impact your coursework?

If you experienced any technology issues, what were they and how did it impact your coursework?

Has your experience this semester raised concern about your future career plans (e.g. applications, job, etc.)?