

Paid Professional Development Opportunities

Wednesday, September 11, 2019

12:00 – 12:50 p.m.

Spruce Room, Student Center

Presenter: Jim Robinson

Throughout the past fifteen years many more options for professional development have arisen until it is likely hard to plan at the beginning of an academic year what opportunities are best for you. Discussed at this session will be the list of opportunities below, when they occur, the application process, and compensation awarded for successful proposals:

- Online Course Developer Workshop
- Intermediate Course Developer Workshop
- Advanced Course Developer Workshop
- QM Peer Reviewer
- Wisconsin Teaching Fellows and Scholars Program
- Community Based Learning Workshop
- Summer Institute II Diversity Workshop
- Internship Workshop
- FASPOF/CRCA/ASPDF Committees
- OPID Spring Conference (presenters)
- OPID Faculty College
- Conference Development Grants

We look forward to seeing you at the session.

Light Refreshments will be served.

This session is sponsored by the Teaching & Learning Center,
