“Contested Knowledges: Indigenous Theorizing/Scholarship in Academia”

How do we mainstream social justice in our curriculum? What are the underlying assumptions? Have we noted the gaze? Would we be able to reflect on that gaze & find out a missing piece? Why do we keep going back to square one when confronting ethnocentrism? How can students & instructor resolve it once & for all?

Professor George J. Sefa Dei is the Chair, Department of Sociology and Equity Studies at the University of Toronto. He has 27 books & over 160 journal articles.
