

9th Annual Online Course Showcase

Wednesday, October 10, 2018
12:00 – 1:30 p.m.
Learning Tech Lab, WYLL D103

At this showcase presenters who completed the Summer Course Development Workshop will discuss the following aspects of their new online courses:

- Jackie Arcy, COMM 108, Media and Society:
Applying course concepts in online discussion boards;
- Manoj Babu, MBA 742, Leadership: Student engagement through video interaction and student presentation methods;
- Sean Dahlin, HESM 701, Amateur Sports Governance & Administration: New Team Discussion Design;
- Ann Friesma, CMHC 700, Clinical Mental Health Counseling: Increasing student engagement with synchronous meetings;
- Josh Hall, HUMA 103, Diversity in the U.S.:
Discussion Assignment: Intersectional Thinking;
- Megan Parietti, HESM 700, Sports Research & Analysis Methodology: Chunking material into mini-lessons;
- Stef Strauss-Thompkins, HESMM 280, Sport and Fitness Nutrition: Community Based Learning (CBL) in the online classroom.

Please RSVP for this lunch session. Space is limited and will be awarded on a first-come first-serve basis through the registration process.

This showcase session is sponsored by the Teaching & Learning Center and the Provost's Office.