

DIVERSITY IN THE COLLEGE CLASSROOM:
REFLECTIONS, CHALLENGES, AND CHANGE

FRIDAY, MARCH 24, 2017: 9:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m.

Faculty/Staff Lounge

FACILITATORS: Damian Evans and Roseann Mason

- 9:00 Welcome; Jim Robinson, Laura Khoury
Name and department
Conversation Guidelines
Tell why you came to this workshop.
- 9:20 Reflect on an experience you have had with the issue of race in your classroom.
- 9:30 Share your experience with the group.
- 10:00 Social Geography
What is your philosophy of teaching and learning? (4 x 6 cards)
What connection is there between your social geography and your philosophy of teaching and learning?
- 10:45 During break, read:
 “A Sense of Not Belonging” by Damian Evans, pp. 1-9
 Excerpt from Young, Gifted, and Black, pp. 35-37
- 11:00 How do the two stories relate to students in your classes?
- 11:30 “Embedded Assumptions about White Privilege”
“Barriers to Clarity”
- Noon “Black Adventures in a Color Blind Society” from Madison 365
- 12:30 “Levels of Change”
- 12:45 Lunch
Closing: “What Can I Do?” by Robert Almanzan