UW-Parkside signs agreement with a Nigerian university. (Continued)

The agreement establishes cooperative articulated degree programs between UW–Parkside and EBSU for various degree granting programs. EBSU students will be admitted to UW–Parkside at various articulated levels, including 1+3, 2+2, 2+1+1 and 3+1 for the undergraduate degree. Thus, EBSU students completing one, two or three academic years of undergraduate study in Nigeria, will directly study articulated undergraduate programs as formally registered students of UW–Parkside in their second, third or fourth academic year. Upon successful completion of their year(s) of study and meeting graduation requirements at UW–Parkside, the students will be awarded the baccalaureate degree by UW–Parkside. Students may continue to earning a graduate degree at UW–Parkside.

From left to right: Professor Ike-Elechi Ogba (Director of Academic Planning), Dr. Sam N. Egwu (Registrar), Dr. Emmanuel Otu (Dean-College of Natural and Health Sciences: UW–Parkside), Professor (Engr.) Francis I. Idike (Vice Chancellor), Professor Ekuma O. Ekumankama (Deputy Vice Chancellor), Dr. Okechukwu I. Okogwu (Head of Department-Biological Sciences and Professor Godwin A. Agbo (Dean-Faculty of Science: EBSU)