Root River Voyagers – Environmental Education Program Series 2015

Make Exploring the Root River Part of your Summer Routine!

For Youth Ages 9yrs and up  ♦  Fridays, 6:30- 8:00 pm  ♦  June 5 - August 28
Sign up at the REC or call for details during operating hours: 262-818-4200 or 262-595-2980

Donations Accepted

June 5: Where Does the Root River Come from?
Learn about the Root River’s roots and the water cycle?

June 12: Water Safety
Wendy Miller, American Red Cross certified, gives instruction on safe water practices. Youth and parents welcome.

June 19: Water Safety
Wendy Miller, American Red Cross certified, gives instruction on safe water practices. Youth and parents welcome.

June 26: Canoeing 101
Learn the basics of canoeing in and out of the water and how it supports a healthy life style.

July 3: No Session Offered

July 10: Kayaking 101
Learn the basics of kayaking in and out of the water and how it supports a healthy life style.

July 17: What is a Mineral and how do they Rock?
Learn what a mineral is, how they make up rocks, and how to identify what you see every day.

July 24: Gift from the Glaciers
Twelve Thousand years ago, Racine was covered under thousands of feet of ice. Learn what the glaciers left behind and see Wisconsin’s landscape from a new visual perspective.

July 31: Our Wild River
From bugs to badgers, learn about what lives around the Root River.

August 7: T & T (Thunder Storms & Tornados)
Learn about the awesome power of Thunder Storms and Tornadoes. Learn how they form, why they are important to an ecosystem, and how to stay safe during one.

August 14: Canoeing 101
Learn the basics of canoeing in and out of the water and how it supports a healthy life style.

August 21: Kayaking 101
Learn the basics of canoeing in and out of the water and how it supports a healthy life style.

August 28: Urban Gardening & Sustainability
Learn what an urban garden is, how it brings a community together, why it is sustainable, what it takes to maintain a garden in the city.

Voyager series sessions are subject to change without notice. Please call in advance to confirm weekly offerings.