

OCTOBER

3 Presidential Losers (Concourse)

We all know what happens when people win the election, but what about those who lose? Check out the poster display in the concourse.

4 Vice Presidential Debate Viewing 7-9 PM (The Den)

Stop by the Den to watch the VP debate and share your thoughts with your classmates while enjoying a slice of pizza.

5 "Candidate View on Criminal Justice Issues: A Brief Overview," 12-1 PM (Walnut Room)

Brown Bag presentation by Professor Philip Wagner, Criminal Justice Department.

"A Look at the 2016 Elections in Wisconsin and the Nation," 3:30-4:30 PM (MOLN 107)

Dr. Charles Franklin will discuss the current election locally and nationally. Dr. Franklin is a nationally recognized government scholar and director of Marquette Law School Poll.

9 Second Presidential Debate 7-9 PM (The Den)

Attend the third viewing event of the semester and enjoy free food and refreshments!

10 Word Shop 12-1 PM (Ballroom)

A hands on workshop using word clouds to unveil the embedded message in political news articles.

11 "How the Media Shapes Politics: A Journalist's Review on the Election," 3:30-4:30 PM (MOLN D139)

John Nichols, correspondent for "The Nation" will discuss ways in which the media shapes politics.

12 "The State of the U.S. Economy: The Good, the Bad, and the Ugly," 12-1 PM (Walnut Room)

Brown bag presentation by Professor Norm Cloutier, Economics Department.

19 "The Politics of Global Warming," 12-1 PM (Walnut Room)

Brown bag presentation by Professor Ross Astoria, Politics, Philosophy & Law Department.

25 "The Eight Supremes: How One Voice Can Make A Difference," 3:30-4:30 PM (MOLN D139)

Dr. Robert Smith is an Associate Professor of History at UW-Milwaukee. He will be presenting on the African American struggle for civil and human rights.

"Students Respond: Election 2016," Ongoing display (UW-Parkside Gallery)

Foundation gallery infographics on display by Professor Carrie Waters' class.

26 "The Presidential Candidates—U.S. Foreign Policy on the Middle East," 12-1 PM (Walnut Room)

Brown Bag presentation by Professor Elizabeth Brownson, History Department.

31 Speak Out 12-1 PM (Wyllie Place)

Wyllie is transformed into an area of open public speaking, debate and discussion. Come and utilize your right to speak!

UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN
PARKSIDE

