

SEPTEMBER

9 Political Jams 12-1 PM (Brickstone Grill)

Parkside welcomes students with a political music jam session with special guests Paul Aceto and Professor Joe Person from the Politics, Philosophy & Law Department.

12 Historic Headlines Poster Display (Concourse)

14 “Clowns to the Left of Me, Jokers to the Right,” 12-1 PM (Walnut Room)

Brown Bag presentation by Professor Peggy James, Politics, Philosophy & Law.

15 Editorialists Cartoonists: Taming the Tigers Lecture 7-9 PM
*(UW-Parkside Gallery)

In conjunction with the Kenosha Festival of Cartooning, Taming the Tigers presents a range of editorial cartoons focused on the 2016 election, issues of free speech and messages of peace.

16 Constitution Day 12-1 PM (Poplar Room)

In celebration of Constitution Day, we gather together and consider the founder’s mistakes. Bring your best ideas on how you’d amend the Constitution.

20 “The Coming Makeover of American Politics,” 3:30-4:30 PM (MOLN D139)

Blue Jean Nation founder and president Mike McCabe will discuss the condition of American democracy, what we all can do about it, and how Blue Jean Nation fits into it.

21 “Political Ethics-Not Your Average Oxymoron,” 12-1 PM (Spruce Room)

Brown Bag presentation by Professor Hudspeth, Politics, Philosophy & Law Department.

26 “Do Words Matter? The Rhetoric of Presidential Politics” 12-1:30 PM
*(MOLN D139)

A lecture presented by Professor Jonathan Shailor, Communication Department.

First Presidential Debate 7-9 PM (The Den)

Join Professor Craig Frizzell as he hosts a viewing party in the Den for the first presidential debate. Come for the free pizza, stay for the politics!

28 “Democracy around the World: What Does it Mean?” 12-1 PM
*(MOLN 112)

Brown Bag presentation by Professor Kate Gillogly, Sociology/Anthropology Department.

UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN

PARKSIDE

