

MBA

Real Opportunities

- The UW-Parkside MBA Program is typically completed in one and a half to two years. You have the option of taking a wide array of courses on campus and online while progressing at your own pace.
- Classes are offered year-round. There are two 7-week sessions during Fall and Spring semesters, and many MBA classes are offered in the Summer and Winterim (month of January).
- Our Business Department is accredited by the Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business (AACSB) International. Only 5% of business schools worldwide have earned this “gold standard” program accreditation.

Great Flexibility

- Customize your own program of graduate business study by choosing electives that can progress your career and/or are of particular interest to you.
- If you want to focus on one business discipline, you can choose primarily Marketing or Accounting or Finance or Management Information Systems electives.
- Other electives include Advanced Global Management, Managing Technology in Turbulent Times, International Finance, Marketing Communications, and Global Supply Chain Management.
- Take as many courses as your schedule allows.

Amazing Results

- UW-Parkside MBA graduates hold exceptional jobs in a wide range of fields including sales, marketing, computer networks/systems, corporate finance, as well as managerial positions in government and nonprofit organizations.
- Our MBA alumni have significant positions in companies such as Abbott Labs, Modine Manufacturing, SC Johnson, CNH Industrial, Aurora Healthcare, Uline, Snap-On, and Twin Disc.
- Many MBA alumni have also become very successful entrepreneurs and operate their own businesses.

UW-Parkside is ranked as one of the most affordable AACSB-accredited MBA Programs in the United States. Indeed, our MBA Program is in the Top 50 nationally, out of hundreds of graduate business programs that have AACSB accreditation.

- Additionally, our MBA students have major opportunities to study abroad in many countries including China, India, Germany, Italy, the Caribbean, Russia, France, and Finland.
- Students at UW-Parkside may also take elective classes online through our partnership with the highly ranked University of Wisconsin MBA Consortium Program (Ranked in the Top 12 by U.S. News and World Report.)
