The information contained with this Self-Reporting Statement is important information that MUST be kept up-to-date with the Institute of Professional Educator Development. The Teacher Education Program requires all applicants and enrolled candidates in programs leading to licensure or requiring clinical experiences to complete this form each semester prior to beginning a clinical field placement. If this form has not been submitted to the Teacher Education Program by the end of the first week of classes each semester, you will be removed from your clinical placement for that semester. Any false or misleading statements may result in denial of admission or continuation in the Teacher Education Program at UW-Parkside. After you have submitted this form, it is your responsibility to notify the program immediately if any of the reported responses to the following questions should change. If further information is necessary on any of the below questions, you will be contacted. You may be required to provide your consent to obtain further information. The program will determine whether to admit you or allow continued enrollment based on the following answers. In the event you are denied admission or continued progression based on the results of this form, you have the right to appeal to the Educator Preparation Program committee. For more information regarding the appeal procedure, or with any questions regarding this form, please call (262) 595-2180.

I understand that the Teacher Education Program may share conduct and competency results with school districts where I will be participating in clinical field experiences. I further understand that some districts may require additional criminal background investigations beyond what is provided through campus police. These additional requests may incur costs to the student.
