If I enroll in a UW-Parkside PACC course, I will abide by all regulations, policies and procedures. I also understand that courses taken at UW-Parkside will become part of my permanent university record and may affect my subsequent eligibility for admission to post-secondary institutions. I authorize my high school district and UW-Parkside to share educational information including, but not limited to: my course registration, grades, attendance, and free and reduced lunch status if applicable, between institutions.

I understand that I will earn my grade over the course of the semester, through various assessment activities and that my course grade is determined by the UW-Parkside instructor, who may also be my high school instructor. I will review the course syllabus for important information such as attendance, deadlines, due dates, and participation requirements, that may be different from my other high school courses.
