

Monthly Ranger Shout-Out: Student Leader/Volunteer

Do you know a student who deserves a bit of spotlight for making the Parkside Community a better place to be?

The Ranger Shout Out program recognizes outstanding students who contribute to the UW-Parkside community and beyond.

Recognize a student by joining the Ranger Shout-Out Campus Connect page and submitting a nomination, which can be found under “Forms.”

What are the qualifications?

Ranger Shout Outs should go to a student who:

- Has done something noteworthy or above and beyond through involvement in a student organization, service to UW-Parkside, or service to the community at large.
- Possesses exceptional leadership skills and stands out among other students.
- Is well-rounded, and strives for excellence inside and outside of the classroom.
- Demonstrates a commitment to UW-Parkside ideals and plays an impactful role in the campus community.

Students who are chosen to be featured as a Ranger Shout Out receive:

- Campus-wide recognition through custom made posters and postings.
- Special recognition at the Leadership and Recognition Banquet in the spring.
- A special leadership gift.

How can I submit a Ranger Shout-Out?

Any member of the UW-Parkside community can submit a Ranger Shout-Out. Paper forms are available in Campus Activities & Engagement and the Student Involvement Center, both located on L1 of the Student Center. You can return them to CA&E in STCR L104, or e-mail them to dalton@uwp.edu. You can also submit a form online by joining the Ranger Shout-out page on Campus Connect and clicking on “Forms.”

It is important to answer the questions on the nomination form as completely and as detailed as possible. The nominees will receive scores based on the content submitted by nominators.
